DEDICATION

According to the dictionary, the formal definition of a teacher is one who instructs others, but this doesn't describe the caring, commitment, patience, and understanding which are also required for the job. Anyone can gain knowledge from a textbook, but only a teacher can make it interesting. For making your classes interesting, Mr. Larenta, we thank you. Very few people possess the self-motivation to walk into a classroom everyday and put up with the crazy antics of teenagers with the hope that all efforts are not in vain. It takes a special kind of person to devote oneself to the education of youth and in so doing, help to create a better tomorrow. In dedicating this yearbook to you, we thank you for your hard work, humor, and commitment to excellence which have enlightened us and will continue to do so in the years to come.

THANK YOU

Ms. Donna Privitera and Mrs. Roseanne Baglio, we thank you for everything you have given the class of '93. Through your help and determination you brought our class together and made our years here at G.H.S. memorable ones. Thank you for putting up with us and sticking by our side through the past three years even when there were times that our class tested your patience.

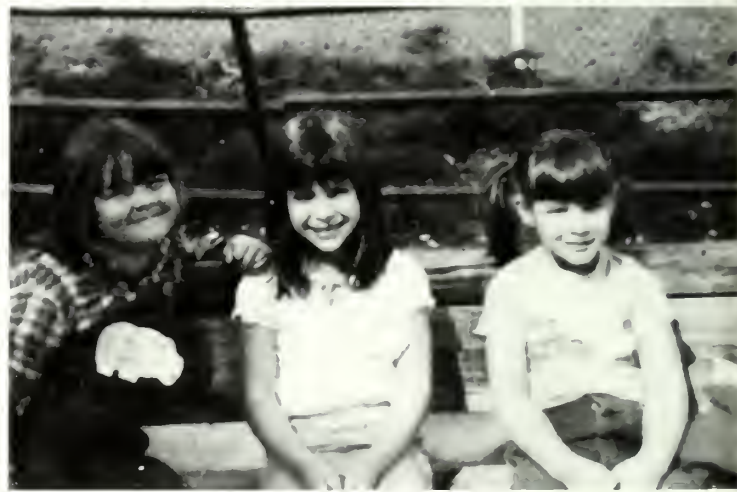

We extend our thanks to Mr. McNally for all his years of service here at G.H.S. He wore many hats: custodian, coach, Math teacher and Math department head. Mr. McNally influenced many teachers and countless students throughout his career. It is going to be difficult to find someone to wear all those hats.

"May you look back on the past with as much pleasure as you look forward to the future."

Friends may come and then drift apart but the memories are with you forever."

Yearbook Staff

It's hard to believe that our time here at GHS has come to an end. In June we will be stepping into a whole new world and where we end up depends solely upon us. Hopefully our years spent together here at GHS have been memorable ones. As you flip through this yearbook may it be a reminder of who we were and who we have become. I'd like to thank Mr. Luca and Mrs. Clay for all their help and long hours spent devoted to this yearbook. Wendy and Mike thanks for putting up with me. I wish everyone in the class of '93 the best of luck and may all your dreams come true.

Jill McRobbie, Editor

Working on a yearbook is time consuming, frustrating, and tiring but at the same time it is one of the most rewarding things I have ever done. I want to wish everybody in the class the best of luck, but no matter how famous or rich you become, don't forget your past. We will all have memories of this place, good and bad, and this yearbook will help us to remember them thirty years from now when we've forgotten the names but never the faces. The future and all our hopes and dreams are out there waiting for us to make them a reality. "To be successful, you have to get out there and do something." Let's go and show the world what we've got!

Mike Salvo, Co-editor

Class of '93 — We've reached the end of what seemed to be a never ending chapter of our lives. It's hard to believe that June 13th will be the last time we will ever assemble as an entire class. We've all anticipated that day and although we all can't wait to get out into "the real world" there's hopefully a little part in all of us that will really miss Georgetown High, whether we'd like to admit it or not. I never realized the amount of hard work, long hours, and patience that go into preparing a yearbook. Although we will soon be heading our own separate ways, I hope that when you flip through these pages the memories will come flooding back. In years to come this yearbook will serve as a memory of the GHS Class of '93. Hopefully we will all look back on GHS and smile, and be proud we were a part of it all.

Thank you Mrs. Clay, Mr. Luca, Jill, and Mike for putting up with me and thank you to the faculty who supported the class of '93 through the years. Once again I thank my parents and friends for always being there for me and for making my high school years, truly, ones I will never forget. Class of '93 — Remember to always do your best and be proud of who you are. Don't ever give up your dreams. "Look to the future; but don't forget the past."

Wendy Giles, Co-Editor

"The faces seem to fade in the years but the memories live on and on."
